

Senior Healthcare Consultant – Reimbursement Services

Job Description

Microscope-HC, a unique healthcare consultancy company headquartered in Syracuse, New York is seeking an enthusiastic Senior Healthcare Consultant. The company's clients are in a wide range of health care environments, including some of the largest hospitals, health systems, long term care facilities and care providers throughout the United States.

You will have the opportunity to work collaboratively with the broader Microscope team in delivering the highest quality service to our clients; consult, work with and service our client base to better understand and serve their needs; and grow and develop your career with support and mentoring from our experienced consultants. Talented individuals with a passion for staying current with the healthcare reimbursement trends and a willingness to improve reimbursement for our healthcare clients will thrive in this environment. We are open to a remote working arrangement.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Run projects simultaneously, managing workloads effectively and taking responsibility for project outcomes.
- Efficiently and effectively use reimbursement and audit-related software
- Question assumptions and data to ensure accurate analysis
- Effectively work independently and demonstrate critical thinking
- Excellent and effective communication skills by keeping the team informed as to the status of the projects
- Identify opportunities to engage clients on future projects.

Requirements

- Minimum of an Associate's degree in Business, Finance or Accounting.
- 2+ years' experience in a reimbursement position in healthcare industry.
- Knowledge of Medicare/Medicaid rules and regulations.
- Proficient use of cost reporting software, IDEA, MS Office applications and other database applications, as applicable.
- Strong analytical skills with the ability to collect, organize, analyze, and disseminate significant amounts of information with attention to detail and accuracy.
- Excellent interpersonal, oral and written communication skills.

Our culture places great emphasis on integrity, teamwork and quality of life. We offer an excellent compensation/benefits package including a competitive salary, health insurance, retirement savings plan and the opportunity to grow with an industry leader.
